MANY WANT TO FIGHT JOHNSON

Champion Being Swamped with Challenges from Unknowns—Will He Meet Langford?—Critics Believe Boston Negro Only One Who Has Chance.

By TOMMY CLARK.

As was to be expected, new pugilistic phenomena are popping up all over the country and hurling challenges at Jack Johnson right and left since he defeated Jeff. Some of them have done but little boxing, but figure that owing to their great strength and build they would be a match for the colored man. Of course no one who knows anything about boxing will consider for one minute that Johnson will pay any heed to the challenges of these fellows.

Two college athletes, one from the University of Michigan, the other of Harvard, are among the white men who have hopes of winning back the heavyweight boxing title for the white race.

These men are Albert Beasbrook of the Michigan college and Earl Van Meter Long, who has been a student at the Cambridge seat of learning for two years.

Among the bunch of ambitious men who are willing to risk their future health in a battle with Johnson are Frank Smith, the Chicago White Sox pitcher, and Larry McLean, the Cincinnati catcher. These men are on record as being willing to fight the champion. They are fine athletes and somewhat buggy on the boxing game. Playing baseball is one branch of sport.

SAM LANGFORD, WHO IS HOTFOOT AFTER BATTLE WITH JOHNSON.

fighting another, and these two fellows had better stick to their chosen profession.

Looking over the long list of men who desire to oppose Johnson in the ring, he finds that there are only two who stand any chance of getting on a match with the champion, and they are Sam Langford and Al Kaufman. There are many experts who believe that the former would stand an excellent chance of defeating Johnson should the pair ever meet. In fact, he is the only man at this moment who is fitted physically and scientifically to meet the champion in a twenty-four foot ring. Langford is conceded to be the most formidable hitter and quickest fustler known to the ring since Robert Fitzsimmons' freckled mauler became so brittle he was afraid to take a punch at even an inflated bag.

Although Langford would concede forty pounds in weight and almost five inches in height, which would seem to be an insurmountable handicap, yet he is willing to go into the ring with the big Galveston fighter. As Johnson also would have a great advantage in reach and Langford is not proof against a left hand jab, it can be seen that the smaller man would be likely to receive a terrific punching before he would be able to get to close quarters and turn loose his own Queensberry artillery. But Samuel is confident that if he ever got close enough to land one of his catapult punches on Johnson the title would change hands in a hurry.

Kaufman's chances of defeating Johnson are very slim. At the training camp Johnson just played with Al. In fact, he could put Kaufman away any time he chose to. As far as Beasbrook, Long, McLean and Smith are concerned, they have very little chance, if any, of getting a match or of beating Johnson if they do. If Langford cannot turn the trick Johnson will remain champion for many years to come.

240 LIVES LOST IN FCG

Japanese Steamer Hits Rock and Sinks

FORTY KNOWN TO BE LOST

Vessel Had Total of 240 Passengers. Warships Sent Out to Rescue Any Survivors There May Be.

Tokio, July 25.—The Tetsurei-Maru, plying between Kobe and Dairen, sank Saturday night off Chinto, Korea. The steamer had 246 passengers aboard, of whom forty were saved. The others are missing. Warships have been sent to the rescue.

Direct reports from Chinto state that two of the Tetsurei's lifeboats landed 40 passengers, who tell of harrowing scenes when the befogged vessel struck. Six lifeboats were launched and filled with passengers. There was no panic, and everything was carried out in the most orderly manner. The captain and the majority of the crew were able to leave the steamer. Six first-class passengers were saved, including W. Cunningham, the British vice consul at Asaka, as well as 13 second-class passengers.

One hundred and five third-class passengers and 59 soldiers were taken off in boats, and there is reason to believe that these boats either reached land or were picked up by the warships.

TWENTY-FIVE KILLED BY A HURRICANE

Great Damage to Several Towns and Adjacent Country in the Northern Part of Italy.

Milan, Italy, July 25.—A hurricane swept the district northwest of Milan Saturday, doing great damage to the towns of Saronno, Rovella and Lonate Pozzolo.

It is estimated that twenty-five persons were killed and many wounded. The victims include several workmen employed on the railway.

IS WAGNER DISSATISFIED?

Great Player's Indifference Said to Be Cause of Pirates' Slump.

According to the wise ones, Hans Wagner, once worshipped by all fandom as its foremost idol, is dissatisfied with his berth as a member of the Pirates and has created dissensions in the ranks of the team. The miserable showing of the champions is charged to this cause. A Pittsburgh critic's version of Wagner's indifference is as follows:—

"Although Wagner draws a salary of $10,000 a year and as a player under contract is supposed to play as directed by the manager of the team, it is no secret that time and again Honnas has disobeyed instructions and has been performing in a don't care and listless fashion.

"In a recent game with the Phillies Wagner went into Fred Clarke's territory and caught a ball which Clarke had called out he would take. A painful collision with disastrous results was averted only by Clarke's agility in turning aside in the nick of time. Wagner's utter disregard of discipline has disgusted George Gibson and other leading members of the team and affected their work. The pitchers lose heart when any tasp which any bush league shortstop ought to handle go through Wagner's territory and are recorded as hits.

"Honnas has expressed himself as being tired of the national game. Being independently wealthy, he does not relish taking orders and is quoted as saying: 'I would like to play baseball just when I feel like it, instead of being compelled to report at a certain time every day and be required to do things as some one else dictates. A ball player is nothing more than a well fed slave, who may be sold to club after club from home any day. When a fellow goes past the stage of enthusiasm baseball becomes labor for him.'"

Davis Lawn Tennis Matches.

Affairs surrounding the Davis international lawn tennis challenge cup have taken a new turn. From the official American tennis organ the statement is made that it has been decided to nominate the team of players to represent this country at the time of playing the all comers' national championship on the courts at Newport, R. I., which will begin Aug. 15. That was the procedure last year. At that time it will be possible to obtain players willing to journey to Australia. Already it is known that Benis C. Wright, now competing in England, and the two Californians, Maurice E. McLoughlin and Melville T. Long, are willing to go. However, much depends upon the form that the two latter display when they appear in the eastern tournaments this season.

Last Week of the Quick Money Sale

Here we are, at the beginning of the end—nearing the wind-up of the greatest reduction sale of good dependable clothing this community has ever known.

Hundreds of fortunate ones will have ample reason to long remember the event, and if this result is accomplished, we are satisfied. Pleasant memories of this kind mean satisfied customers—and that means steady customers.

Even in the face of our announcements, some have come here a little skeptical, but, once here, they are astonished at the quality and quantity a little money will buy.

Are you one of the tardy ones? We want everyone to have a chance and we made it almost a full month of bargain giving. One week more, and you can't afford to let the opportunity slip away. If you don't need any of the things we mention here, come and look at the ones we don't mention.

ENDS VISIT TO SEN. HALE

President Sails for Bar Harbor Again

WENT TO CHURCH SUNDAY

The President's Sprained Ankle Will Keep Him Away from the Golf Links for a Few Days, but is Much Improved.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 25.—President Taft left Ellsworth after his visit to Senator Hale early yesterday afternoon by special train for Mount Desert ferry, where the Mayflower barge was waiting the party. As soon as everyone was safely on board, the yacht picked up her anchors and headed for Bar Harbor and the sea. The course from here lies southward, and a slow run will take the president to Islesboro, where he landed today at 10 a. m.

Mr. Taft's sprained ankle, after a night in compressors, was improved yesterday. While the president may have to give up golf for a few days, the plans for the rest of the cruise, which ends next Thursday afternoon at Beverly, will not otherwise be interfered with.

At Ellsworth yesterday afternoon President Taft and his entire party attended services at the Congregational church.

Just before leaving Ellsworth the president was driven to Mrs. Hale's camp at Blanchford for a plate of old-fashioned New England clam chowder.

Chief of Police Drummey of Ellsworth was busy Saturday night and yesterday recording complaints from the townspeople of losses of pocket books, watches and other articles of jewelry. It seems that a band of pickpockets, four men and a woman, arrived in Ellsworth just before the president got there and plied their trade with unusual skill. The crowd which thronged Hancock hall to hear the president speak and which crushed eagerly forward to shake his hand when the reception began, was the special object of attack. When the hall was cleared out, three empty leather wallets were found on the floor. It is estimated that the thieves got away with several hundred dollars in the aggregate, although the individual losses did not go above $15. Among the victims were a number of farmers, who had driven many miles into the city to see the president.

Hottest in Nine Years.

Chicago, July 25.—Yesterday was the hottest day in Chicago in nine years. The weather bureau thermometer on the street level registered 102 degrees at three p. m. The thermometer on the federal building registered 97.

PUT CHECKS IN STORAGE.

Blodgett's Administrators Face Difficulties.

Newbury, N. H., July 25.—Financial complications of an unusual character have developed in the attempt to settle the estate of George W. Blodgett, the "cottage king" of the lake Sunapee region, who was found dead in an outbuilding on his farm several weeks ago.

Mr. Blodgett owned hundreds of acres on the east shore of lake Sunapee, his estate adjoining that of Hon. John Hay. Many attempts were made by syndicates to buy Mr. Blodgett's farm, or sections of it, but he would go no further than to lease sites for cottages. These were built by hundreds and brought him in an annual income of thousands of dollars.

Mr. Blodgett was eccentric in many ways, and among his distinguishing traits was his disregard of wealth. He was careless in this regard that is now making trouble for those who have undertaken the task of settling his estate.

Many payments made to him by lessees of cottages or land were in the form of checks, and Mr. Blodgett evinced his contempt for money by throwing the checks into a large trunk in which he kept various papers, and leaving them unwatched for years.

The administrators are finding that in many instances the persons who gave the checks years ago are either dead or have withdrawn their funds from the banks on which the checks were drawn, and that the checks are being returned unheeded. It is certain some of the checks represent an absolute loss.

A question of law has been raised in connection with these checks as to the right of the administrator to demand payment now, when they were tendered in payment years ago, the only reason that they were not cashed being be-

THE WEBSTER OPIUM CASES.

Danger Believed to Have Passed In Recovery of Seriously Affected Child.

Webster, Mass., July 25.—All danger of death of any of the eight children of Webster, who were made ill Friday by eating opium pills, which they found on the public dump and mistook for candy, was believed to have been passed Saturday afternoon when Victor Pepka, the most seriously affected of the number, regained consciousness. Young Pepka is believed to have eaten 12 grains of the narcotic, and he remained in a stupor for 30 hours, in spite of all that medicine skill could do for him.
